100 SCHOOLS
in less than
12 MONTHS

It's only just over two months since we lost our remarkable Oli.

At his tribute, we spoke about the power of a handwritten letter and how Oli loved to send them. We are very grateful for the hundreds of cards, letters and poems we've received over the last eight weeks. We wish we could write everyone a note back, but such is the love for Oli and the size of the community that's formed since his death, we've decided to send you this newsletter, which we expect will be the first of many!

ANTIGUA // SCATTERING SOME OF OLIVIA'S ASHES

Losing Oli has created a big hole in our lives. We can't bring him back, so we've decided to fill the hole with good things. We wanted to share the energy, connect you to the magic of what's happening, and provide answers to the many questions we've been asked by those of you that want to get involved in Oli's 100 Schools project. Whether it be building a school as a business or a family, fundraising or supporting, we hope this newsletter and Oli's website provides answers and inspiration.

After the tribute we took some time away as a family to begin the healing process. The weeks since we returned have been particularly difficult, as we each face the hardest challenge we have ever experienced - beginning to adjust to a 'new normal' and a life without Oli physically here. However the 'Wizzy Spirit' is strong and we are looking after each other, whilst working hard to 'keep the spark, keep the Wizziness' as was written in one of the many wonderful letters we received.

We are very grateful to be surrounded by incredible people. Family, friends and strangers have shown us love and kindness. The help that we have received leading up to Oli's tribute and since is astonishing. Oli's wonderful work has been published, books are selling fast, a great website has been created, funding has been raised for 7 schools and a community of over 1000 people has come together to build 100 Schools in less than a year. This has only been possible because of a very special group of people that have given their time, support and expertise.

Thank you. There is no doubt that the grieving process is easier to manage because of you.

As we said at the tribute, we will always be a family of five. Oli is no longer physically here, but he's certainly with us all in spirit - and we really feel that. We look forward to continuing to share his wisdom, building 100 Schools in his honour and together impacting the lives of many, many people.

Thank you for all your support and joining us on this meaningful journey.

We know Oli is beaming with pride...

Love Stefan, Diana, Alex & Max

Announcing

Oli's Collection

Our wonderful design wizard Jo has done an amazing job of making Oli's artwork available to purchase. Following many requests for Oli's inspirational quotes and illustrations, we are so happy to launch "Oli's Collection" - just in time for Christmas!

We've partnered with an organisation that promptly fulfils all orders direct, taking care of printing, packing and posting, with all sale proceeds going to Oli's 100 Schools project!

These items are all a great way to have some Oli wisdom in our daily lives - and all make great gifts too!

Wake up a wall with some Oli Wisdom!

A phone case with meaning...

...and hoodies and hats and more...

Oli's Tribute

Many people have asked for copies of the poems and speeches from Oli's tribute.

These can now be viewed at Oliverwissenbach.com.

Welcome to the team

We're very pleased and grateful that our dear friend, Carol Hatherly, has volunteered her time to take on the role as Head of Administration for The Magic Future Foundation and Oli's 100 Schools Project. Thanks Carol! Carol can be contacted at: carol@magicfuturefoundation.org

Oli's Christmas ecard

Many people now prefer to make a charitable donation and send an ecard instead of posting Christmas cards. We've looked through Oli's artwork files and pulled together his drawings to create a school funding ecard.

Help us spread the word - go to www.oliverwissenbach.com to get your ecard.

Make a difference in your world

At Oli's tribute Stefan spoke about 5 simple ways that you can make a difference in your world and to the people around you.

Here's a reminder - why not choose one and start today?

- Hand write a letter to someone you care about – but send it out of the blue, not because it's their birthday or an occasion.
- Make people feel like they're the only person in the room when you talk to them. Be interested, not interesting.
- Think about who you love – write to one of them and share with them a list of things you love about them.
- Read the Daily Stoic
- Ghandi said 'Live every day as if it were your last but plan as if you'll live forever'. Oli really lived by that, and our last day together was a great example. Consider applying this approach to your own life.

There are many more great lessons in his book, and we will be applying as many of them as we can.

The Magnificent Seven A Unique Gastronomic Experience

In February 2020, Seven Michelin Starred Chefs will come together in aid of Oli's 100 Schools Project.

Each will prepare one course for an exceptional seven course menu. Never before have they all performed together in one restaurant on one evening.

Never will they do so again. Tickets will be limited and sold on a first come first served basis.

100 SCHOOLS
in less than
12 MONTHS

Together we will build 100 schools in Oli's honour.

The impact on the communities that currently have no school will be significant. The impact on the teams that are able to witness and help with the building of schools will be life changing.

But most importantly, each and every one of us that has decided to join the project to build 100 schools in less than a year - whether fundraising, donating or supporting, can rightly feel very proud of being part of something very special...
